

The Trussville Public Library has an auditorium to be used for meetings, programs, and performances. The primary purpose of the auditorium is to provide appropriate space for library-sponsored meetings and programs. The Auditorium seats approximately 200 people theater style. Seating with tables will hold a maximum of 64 attendees. Those who are interested in reserving the Auditorium should view the room prior to reserving it.

When the Auditorium is not in use by library staff members, it may be reserved in 4 hour blocks for public use by community groups in the following categories:

Commercial: A meeting is commercial if a) any charges or fees are required in order to attend this meeting; b) goods or services are sold at or offered for sale at the meeting; or c) the meeting promotes a commercial enterprise. Educational seminars provided by commercial enterprises are considered commercial.

Non-Commercial: Any group that is not on our exemption list or is not within our Commercial definition.

Exemption: All meetings relating to Friends of Trussville Library, City of Trussville, Trussville City Schools, and Eastern Women's Committee of 50.

Commercial	Non-Commercial	Exemption
$100.00	$50.00	No Charge

Prices are not reduced for shorter times of use. Fees will begin January 1, 2023.

The Auditorium may not be used for:

- Any purpose that interferes with the regular operation of the library
- Pageants, personal, company, or family parties or similar activities
